

For this holiday season, PRC is partnering with SECOR Cares to provide gifts to families in need in the Parker community. All gifts collected will go to the Christmas market at Southeast Christian Church, where parents can shop for gifts for their children.

If interested in donating, green and red tags with needed items can be found on the christmas tree in the lobby of the PRC.

All items need to be collected by Dec 1st.